What You Can Expect

Is it possible to make your own samurai sword? Of course, if you have about 10 years of time to spend!

However, the basic Japanese style knife making course takes just one day. This is an activity where you can experience and learn the specifics of this traditional culture. After completing the work, you can take the Japanese-style knife you made home with you. You will use the same tools used for Japanese sword making when you forge the knife in the morning. Lunch will be prepared at the smithy, and then in the afternoon you will complete the activity by shaping the knife.

Please enjoy our traditional culture through experiencing Japanese-style knife making.
