What You Can Expect

For women, there are more than a hundred of Furisode available to choose. Furisode is a traditional, long-sleeved kimono that is a formal outfit that Japanese women wear for special occasions, such as a coming-of-age ceremony or wedding ceremonies. For men, there is also a selection of traditional kimono attire, but not as many as for women. After you choose which kimono to wear, a professional staff will dress you in the kimono. Please note that hair and makeup is not included in the package. When you are ready, you will move to a studio of the shop and strike a pose like a model and have your photo taken in a traditional kimono costume. Now you become a Japanese beauty!
