

Shodo (Japanese Calligraphy)

(Code: rjn10025)

Overview

This is an ideal choice for you, if you are interested in Japanese culture and wish to deepen your knowledge. You will discover the beauty of writing through Japanese brush calligraphy. Learning how to write with Fude (brush) and Bokuju (black ink) step by step, you will accomplish this class with a one-of-a-kind calligraphy souvenir made by yourself.

Highlights

- Opportunity for learning Japanese Calligraphy
- Step-by-step learning program for beginner
- Small group ensures personal service

What You Can Expect

Start your session by practicing a proper technique for holding and moving a "fude" (calligraphy brush) with a copy of English instructions written out on a piece of paper with step-by-step instructions. Your instructor will help showing proper movements for composing lines in this meticulous art form. Experiment with your newfound skills as you try forming different characters for Japanese words like "dream," "heart," "samurai," and "friend." Once you get ready, you will begin creating a special calligraphy artwork using a paper called "shikishi." When your one-of-a-kind creation is finished, you will also receive a special stamp from your teacher as recognition of your work.
