

Sushi Making and Lunch

(Code: rjn10021)

Overview

Experience making sushi for lunch! Sushi Academy is where foreign students from all over the world come to learn how to make sushi. These students are eager to open their own sushi restaurants in their home countries. This program is not a serious lesson, so take it easy for learning the art of sushi and enjoying your sushi creations for lunch.

Highlights

- Lunch included
- Perfect introduction for first-time visitors
- All necessary equipment included

What You Can Expect

First, you will try preparing Neta, or toppings for sushi, and cooking miso soup for your lunch. After the preparations for the Neta, you will make the sushi including Maki-zushi, or rolled sushi, and Nigiri-zushi, handmade sushi, for your lunch. While it may look easy to make, the taste depends considerably on the way it is prepared. As you follow the way of your master making sushi, you will be able to enjoy making own creations. Once you are done preparing the meal around noon, it is time for having your sushi lunch you made.
