

Tateyama Alpine Route

Nagoya-Tokyo

5days 4nights

~May~

- | | |
|----|--|
| D1 | NGO APT ~ Takayama ~ Shirakawago |
| D2 | Kurobe Tateyama Alpine Route (approx.7~8 hours) |
| D3 | Matsumoto Castle ~ Fuji Shiba Sakura Festival |
| D4 | Mt. Fuji 5th Station ~ Oshino Hakkai ~ Kamakura Daibutsu |
| D5 | Asakusa Temple ~ Tokyo Skytree ~ Odaiba ~ HND APT |

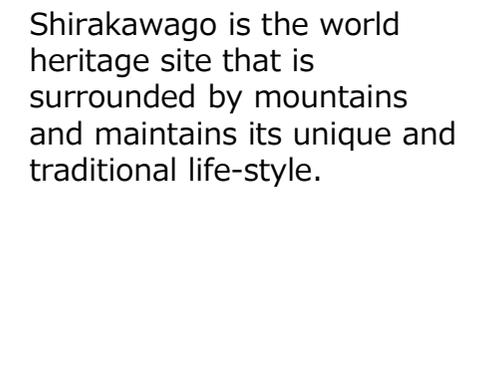

Takayama

Takayama is known as a little Kyoto, which has a very quaint atmosphere. Also, Takayama is famous for its Morning Market, one of the three biggest morning markets in Japan.

Kurobe Tateyama

Tateyama Kurobe Alpen Route is a spectacular route through the Northern Japan Alps which is traversed by various means of transportation including cable cars, trolley buses and a ropeway. It is inaccessible from December to mid April until clearing snow and tall snow walls appears after the clearing till the snow melts.

Shirakawago

Shirakawago is the world heritage site that is surrounded by mountains and maintains its unique and traditional life-style.

Matsumoto Castle has an elegant structure with black and white, designated as one of five castles of National Treasure.

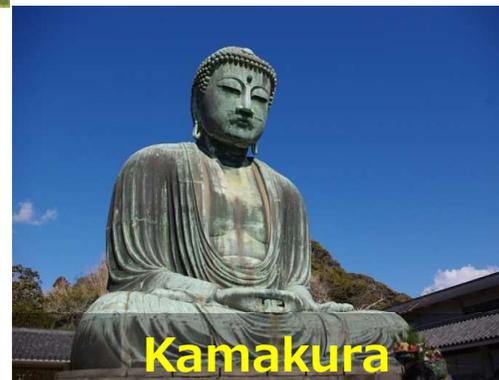

Matsumoto

Mt. Fuji

Yamanashi is, off course, famous for Mt. Fuji, one of the UNESCO world heritage sites and the representative of Japan. There will be a pink moss festival in May.

Kamakura

The statue known as Kamakura Daibutsu, is one of three Daibutsu statues in Japan. The height is 13.35 meters including the base and the weight is about 121 tons and the statue sits in the open air.