☆Futami Okitama Shrine & Meoto-iwa

Futami Okitama Shrine is historically significant since pilgrims headed to the Ise Jingu would gather to cleanse in the saltwater (a ritual called Hamasangu) and begin their journey. You can see two rocks known as "couple's rocks" standing side by side on the sea in Futamigaura.

☆Hinjitsu-kan (Important cultural property)

Hinjitsukan is a former guesthouse built in 1887, originally constructed to host important guests who were visiting the Ise Jingu. The two-story guesthouse is now a museum displaying architectural and interior designs from the Meiji Period. Its first guests were the members of the Imperial family. Many of the rooms in Hinjitsukan display ornate decorations and feature classical designs from the leading architects of the period.

☆Ise Jingu (Shrine)

Ise Jingu, officially 'Jingu', includes 125 jinja (shinto shrine), centered around Kotaijingu (Naiku), dedicated to Amaterasu-Omikami, and Toyo'uke-daijingu (Geku), dedicated to Toyo'uke-no-Omikami. Its area is roughly the same size as Center of Paris. More than 1,500 rituals are conducted here yearly to pray for the prosperity of the Imperial family, the peace of the world, and the huge harvest.

☆Okage Yokocho & Oharai Machi

Okageyokocho Lane is located in the Oharaimachi area near the Naiku shrine. Built from the Edo era to the Meiji era, this small alleyway extending across 13,200 square meters has relocated and reproduced some historic Japanese architecture. You can look for specialty souvenirs such as rice cakes and Ise tea, and enjoy strolling around the gourmet restaurants associated with Mie Prefecture.

☆Local Speciality Lunch

For your lunch, please enjoy the local specialty "Tekone-sushi" and Ise-udon".

Served with Kaiyaki (broiled shellfish) and Chawan-mushi (steamed egg custard)
